FRIDAY

VOLUME XIII. NO. 114.

MANHATTAN HOUSE,
NO. 63 DUANE-STREET, NEW YORK.
JAMES RYAN, from the Howard House, Boston, recently informs the public, that he has taken the large building in Duane street, doors from Broadway, known as Rutger's College, for the purpose of HOTEL and RESTAURANT. The interior of the building has been entirely taken out, and fitted expressly to suit the business of the present occupant.

Mr. Ryan will keep the Manhattan House for the accommodation of Clubs and Parties. The best wines and Liquors will be furnished from his cellar, having been carefully selected from the best stocks in Boston, a large portion of them being of the celebrated stocks long in the cellar. Mr. Gallagher of the Exchange Coffee House, Reasons will be furnished for References, and Courts Martial, Transient and permanent boarders will be accommodated in the best style known in the country; and elegant amusements will be had, with or without board.

The Table of Hours will be supplied with every delicacy of the various seasons. Breakfasts, Dinners and Suppers, of every description, will be served at short notice, and various soups will be ready every day from eleven to three. Mr. Ryan is confident that in this department, his own experience added to the skill of the persons employed as cuisiniers, will enable him to please the most fastidious epicures, both in respect to quality and style.

Those friends who have known the character of Mr. Ryan's House in Boston, he is assured, will find his accommodations better, his means more ample, and his dil'gence quite as unceasing; and from such strangers in this city, as love exacting in the various departments of his profession, he would give the favor of an early call, with the full hope of gaining satisfaction.

Mr. House was opened on the 15th June, 1837. epif. 167

MARLBORO' HOTEL.

The subscriber would respectfully give notice that he has taken the MARLBORO' HOTEL. The house has been thoroughly repaired, enlarged, and neatly painted and papered. The furniture and bedding are new, and the accommodations in every respect are believed to be equal to any other Hotel in the city. No pains will be spared to furnish the table with every variety the market affords. Efforts will be made to furnish with the products of free labor. Every provision will be made for those who prefer a simple diet. Religious worship will be regularly maintained every day, and as far as possible to prevent so much as may be received or bills will be settled on the Sabbath. No smoking allowed. The Hotel will be kept on the Temperance principles, and while it is a party to intoxicating liquors will be sold or used, it will be a quiet house for gentlemen travelling with their families, as well as for others. There are several suits of rooms for the accommodation of small families as permanent boarders. Application for permanent board will be received at the Hotel every day.

GROSS IMPOSITION.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

No 9 Pearl place, has discovered a valuable glutinous substance, denominated GOLD PURIFIER and GOLD VARNISH, which he applies to gilt frames and gilding of all kinds, which not only adds to their brilliancy, but renders them perfectly water proof.

The high reputation which this article has gained, having stood the test of many years and having been used and approved by hundreds of our most respectable citizens, has induced several unprincipled men to pretend to a similar discovery, in the application of which they have injured many valuable frames. Among the many pretenders to this valuable article, one is George Crocker, a young foreigner, who, having copied Mr. Rowley's advertisement very closely, has applied for a patent under the title of the Gold Varnish, has applied a spurious substance and has in several instances done great injury to frames, by rubbing off the gold in attempting to cleanse them, and by applying a spurious article. Having examined frames varnished by Crocker, I find that the substance used by him has none of the essential qualities of the Gold Purifier and Gold Varnish.

The high reputation which this article has gained, having stood the test of many years and having been used and approved by hundreds of our most respectable citizens, has induced several unprincipled men to pretend to a similar discovery, in the application of which they have injured many valuable frames. Among the many pretenders to this valuable article, one is George Crocker, a young foreigner, who, having copied Mr. Rowley's advertisement very closely, has applied for a patent under the title of the Gold Varnish, has applied a spurious substance and has in several instances done great injury to frames, by rubbing off the gold in attempting to cleanse them, and by applying a spurious article. Having examined frames varnished by Crocker, I find that the substance used by him has none of the essential qualities of the Gold Purifier and Gold Varnish.

The above solution, the undersigned was the original discoverer, and has used it for many years, in thousands of instances, with the most perfect success—not has the secret of its preparation ever been communicated to any one. Such impositions as that practised by Crocker should meet with deserved reprobation, by all who would cherish the useful arts and encourage the spirit of discovery and invention.

BOSTON MORNING POST.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1837.

NOTICE.—The Democratic Republican County Committee for Suffolk, are requested to meet in Concert Hall, THIS EVENING, at half past 7 o'clock.

It is hoped that every member of the Committee will be present.

PETER DUNBAR, Chairman.

Notice.—The State Convention of Democratic Republicans assembled in Worcester on the 20th September, On motion of Mr CASE, of Lowell,

Resolved, That the Chairman of the several County Committees be, and that they hereby are, constituted the Democratic State Committee for the ensuing political year, and that the member for Suffolk County be authorized and requested to call the first meeting of the Committee for the purpose of organization or other business.

Resolved, That the Chairman of the several County Committees chosen annually hereafter, shall constitute the State Committee—until the County Convention shall designate other individuals for this office, until otherwise ordered by a general State Convention of the Democracy of the Commonwealth.

Resolved, That the State Committee, thus constituted, be authorized and directed to call State Conventions, when so requested by a Caucus of Democratic members of the Legislature, or when two thirds of said Committee shall deem it expedient; and to do such other things as may be necessary, in their opinion, to promote the interests of the Democracy of the State, whose organ they are.

In pursuance of the duty assigned me by the Convention, gentlemen in the different Counties designated in the above Resolutions as composing the State Committee, are requested to attend the first meeting, at CONCERT HALL, in Boston, on Wednesday, the twenty-fifth day of October instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon for the purpose of organization, &c.

PETER DUNBAR,
Chairman of Suffolk County Committee.

On the democratic papers throughout the Commonwealth are requested to publish the above.

Correspondence of the Boston Morning Post.

Washington, Oct. 9, 1837.

Monday Evening, 7 1/2 o'clock.

The Treasury Note Bill has been under the hammer all day. The debates have been moderate, and although a thousand amendments have been proposed, only one has been adopted of any consequence. An amendment to confine the emission to fifty dollar notes, instead of those of the denomination of one hundred, has been adopted. The ayes and noes are now taking on a motion to reduce the interest on the notes from six to two per cent. It cannot be carried—it has been lost. Eight o'clock.—The ayes and noes are now taking on the final passage of the bill. Quarter past eight o'clock.—The bill has passed by the following vote: ayes 125, noes 99.

Yours, &c.

CONSIDER STANDISH.

Elections.—In Philadelphia city the federalists have elected their candidates by their usual majority of about 2700 votes; the democrats have carried the county by a handsome majority.

Georgia.—Mr Gilmer, in between fifty and sixty counties heard from, has a majority rising 4000 votes, and is probably elected Governor. He was supported by Col. Cathcart, and many of the strongest friends of the national administration.

New York.—The nomination of C. G. Ferris, Esq., as a candidate for the State Senate, has united the democratic party in the city, and we hope will lead to the perfect restoration of harmony in its ranks.

In speaking of this event the News of Tuesday says—

"Last evening the democracy of this city assembled in the different Wards, to nominate delegates to Tammany Hall, to nominate officers and members of Assembly to be presented to the people for their support. The Wards heard from, give a sentence that the democracy of this city will be unit in the approaching contest. We had a family quarrel, and have seen the pernicious consequences resulting from such a state of things. Let us forgive and forget, shake hands, and again unite in the good old cause. Let us banish odious distinctions and nicknames. Let neither Conservative nor Loco Foco be recognized by any democrat. This is the only name which should distinguish the friends of the administration, and under the banner of democracy we should fight."

The following glance at the late elections is copied from the Lowell Advertiser:—

"So far as the summer and fall elections have gone, the democrats have gained since last year, in Mississippi, Alabama, Maryland and Vermont; and held their ground in Arkansas, Michigan, Missouri, Rhode Island and Maine.—In the latter State, it is supposed that the democrats have carried the Senate, the federalists the House of Representatives; and that there is no election of Governor; who will be elected by the Senate, from two of the four highest voted for, sent up by the House, one of whom must be a democrat. Under such circumstances there is little doubt that the Governor and Senate will be democratic, and the House, and probably the Council liberal."

United States and Texas.—We invite attention to the Letter of Mr FORSYTH, on the First Page. The enlightened and judicious course pursued by the Administration, with respect to the singular and important subject discussed in this able document, will satisfy the public mind, and add much to the increasing and well-deserved popularity of the President. The tone manifested toward Texas, is frank, explicit, and decided, but neither harsh, irritating, or uncourteous. The Executive plainly reveals his determinations and vindicates them by clear and pertinent reasoning. Again the traducers of President Van Buren find him steadily and firmly resolved to guard vigilantly the great interests of the nation. Every development of the measures of the Administration falsifies the threadbare accusations of its opponents. The honestly disposed freemen of the country have the sagacity to discover this, and will assuredly discard the indefensible policy of uneasy and aspiring demagogues, who have labored with untiring zeal to procure a condemnation of the Administration, before allowing it a trial.

The Matchless Sanative.—By an advertisement in our paper, to-day, it will be seen that this medicine has lost none of its virtues in crossing the Atlantic—for it appears to be working similar cures in America to those which have astonished Europe.

The Matchless Sanative.—By an advertisement in our paper, to-day, it will be seen that this medicine has lost none of its virtues in crossing the Atlantic—for it appears to be working similar cures in America to those which have astonished Europe.

The Newburyport Herald thinks that the recent accession of strength to the Administration party in Congress, "renders the state of parties somewhat doubtful and confused"—this is true so far as the federal party is concerned, for it never was in more "doubt" and "confusion" in the world than at this moment.

MUNICIPAL COURT.

The Grand Jury returned twenty-four Indictments yesterday. Two of them were against Milton Lovett, for passing counterfeit money. There were separate indictments against Teekar, Young, Pierce, and Brown, for a riotous assault on the Montgomery Guards, and also for assaults on the Police Officers. Their trial was assigned for Saturday.

Hamilton Smith, a colored man, was convicted of cheating Isaac McLellan by false pretences; and also on another indictment for stealing a check from Mr McLellan.

Jacob Tracy was convicted of assault on Samuel Cole; and also on a separate indictment for an assault on Emma Cole, wife of said Samuel. All the parties were colored.

POLICE COURT.

Jesse Mann, truckman, versus Fletcher, mate of the P. T. It was proved that Mann crowded his team up to Fletcher, on the wharf, so provokingly, that Fletcher, in a moment of irritation, seized the whip, and laid it on the horses to the tune of "Georgie, give O!" Mann also swore that his own legs came in for more than quantum suff. of that sort of gartering, but no one else would swear so, and as Mann had acted in a very hoggish manner with his truck, his Honor came to the conclusion that it would be tolerably safe to suppose that he was so swinish as not to know the horses' legs from his own, and therefore discharged Fletcher.

It is expected that an interesting gambling case will come on in the Common Pleas to day. A loser has sued the keeper of a gaming house, for the double damages allowed by statute. The damages are laid at two thousand dollars.

The present Ex-President Adams is famous for his morning ablutions, and formerly was in the uniform habit of taking a morning swim in the Potowmack, and he had a practice of remaining nearly motionless in the water, with nothing above but his bald head, listening to the morning sun; and on one occasion a very near-sighted artist, who was likewise taking a bath, took the head for the large end of a gourd, and for diversion swam off to it, and did not discover his mistake till he laid his hand very cavalierly on the Ex-President's head, which at that time was pretty considerably crammed with the cares of the Nation. The artist then started back as if he had unwittingly clutched a dead man.

On the First Page is a translation from an old historian, on the subject of music, which we commend to the attention of the Daily Advertiser, Boston Courier, and our friend Long Wharf.

The Van Buren papers are trying to keep up the spirits of the party, asserting there is no choice of Governor in Maine. Boys whistle sometimes to stimulate their courage when passing a grave yard.—Northampton Courier.

The whigs crow for the same purpose.

"Bid de fiddle to the banjar speak,
The banjar to the calash without."

At the Tremont, Jim Crow has dropped the fine, and comes it on the strong, to the great satisfaction of his old admirers.

The Tyrolese Minstrels gave the most unqualified satisfaction by their singing at the Tremont last night. They appear again to night, and a full audience of the lovers of music will undoubtedly be present.

Punishment of Heretics.—"No one doubts," says an ancient writer of the middle ages, "that heretics ought to be put to death; but the particular method of execution may well be a topic of discussion."

The number of interments at the Bayon burying ground, New Orleans, from the 25th September to the 1st October was 177.

A coach-whip snake, sixteen feet long and eight inches in circumference, was shot by Judge Ineson, of Alabama, on the 30th ult.

A new historical Drama, in five acts, called POCOHONTAS, has been published by George Dearborn, of N. York, which the papers praise loudly.

Mr Russell's Concert, this evening. There is no violinist equal to him in the country.

The Atlas does not like our two line paragraphs—we are sorry, for they are written solely to please him.

Interesting to Aldermen.—An ox in Claremont weighs three thousand five hundred pounds.

Large lots of emigrants are moving toward Texas from the South and West—many families among them.

Hiram Powers, the Sculptor, sailed from New York, on Monday, for Havre.

From the New Orleans Bee, Oct. 4.

Coroner's Inquest.—On Monday last the coroner was called to make an examination on the body of Mr George Olden, killed by a pistol shot, in a house situated at the corner of La Course and Nayades streets.

It appears that the deceased was returning to town in the Lafayette car, and arriving at the above mentioned place, the car stopped to change horses. In the meantime a quarrel having arisen between the driver and one of the passengers, the former ran toward a cabaret, whither he was pursued by many persons.

Among the number was Mr Olden who, entering the shop, instantly received a pistol shot from a man named Ursin Chapman, who was standing at the time behind his counter. The ball penetrated the breast of Mr Olden and pierced the left lung.

The jury of inquest returned a verdict of murder against Ursin Chapman, who has succeeded for the time in escaping.

The deceased was a respectable merchant of the firm of Newkirk & Olden, a gentleman well known and esteemed by a numerous acquaintance.

Revenge beyond the Grave.—The Duchess of St Albans is leaving £10,000 a year to her husband, clogged it with a condition that if certain members of her husband's family should reside with her for more than eight days, in a year, the bequest should be void. Her Grace's vindictive spirit, however, has defected itself, as anything contrary to morality cannot be sustained in law. The animosity evinced by her Grace toward Lord Frederick Beauclerk, of the Royal Navy, one of the Duke's brothers, arose out of his refusal to meet her wishes in an alliance with her intended heiress, Miss ANGELA BURDETT, Hudson's Express.

Fatal Accident.—Our Correspondent at Edgartown, writes us that the schooner Lucy Blake, for New York, arrived at that place on the 29th ult. with the body of Mr George Hobbs, of Camden, Me. He was killed by the accidental discharge of a gun, which had been loaded to shoot sea fowl. While endeavoring off Edgartown to get the gun into the cabin, it went off, and a heavy charge entered his heart, causing his death in about forty minutes. He was interred at Edgartown. His funeral was attended by nearly all the seamen in the port and a large course of citizens of the town; the services were very solemn, and impressive.—Barnstable Patriot.

The store of Mr Thomas Hough, of Edgartown, was entered on the night of the 26th ult. and money, broadcloths, &c, to the amount of about $75,000 taken therefrom. This is the second attempt of store breaking in that place within a short time. The thieves have not been detected.—Ibid.

Printing and Bookmaking in Cincinnati.—The Cincinnati Post says there are now in that city four daily, four tri-weekly, and twelve weekly papers, and four monthly journals. There are fourteen book establishments, and one house (Forman & Smith) have during the last two years published 500,000 volumes—chiefly juvenile and school books.—N. Y. Star.

fatal Accident.—On Wednesday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, a man named Cutts, a carpenter, of West Roxbury, fell from an omnibus, while passing over Jamaica Plains; two of the wheels ran over him, and when taken up he was dead.—Mercantile Journal.

The Newburyport Herald thinks that the recent accession of strength to the Administration party in Congress, "renders the state of parties somewhat doubtful and confused"—this is true so far as the federal party is concerned, for it never was in more "doubt" and "confusion" in the world than at this moment.

CONGRESS.

In the House, on Tuesday, Oct. 10.—A resolution was passed to print 10,000 extra copies of the documents relative to the annexation of Texas.

The Joint Resolution from the Senate directing the postage on letters by the Express Mail to be paid in advance, was read a second time. The question being on ordering it to a third reading, Messrs. Briggs, Biggs and Connor offered some remarks in opposition to the bill—when, the previous question was ordered, and the resolution was read a third time and passed.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, (Mr Smith in the chair,) and Mr Pickens moved that the House take up the Senate bill imposing certain duties on officers of the Government as depositories in certain cases.

Mr Legare opposed the motion, and called for tellers. The motion was agreed to by a vote of 100 to 80.

Mr Pickens spoke at length in favor of the bill.

The proceedings of the Senate have not come to hand.

Statistics of free Colored Persons.—The number of colored persons at Philadelphia estimated at 25,000.—Their real estate $850,000. They have 15 churches, 34 clergymen of different sects, 21 schools, 27 Sunday schools with 125 teachers, 64 benevolent societies, 4 temperance societies, &c.—New York Star.

Judge Ward in the case of Adams vs. Curtis, being a claim for a seaman's wages, decided that a contract is good and valid although made on the Sabbath.—Ibid.

Specie.—The Santa Fe Fall Traders have returned to Missouri, and brought a large amount of specie.

To the Editor of the Boston Morning Post.

If your correspondent Knott & Co. feel themselves sufficiently authorized to inquire into an elucidation of the matter, they can do so by calling at Mr Smith's, corner of Federal and Franklin streets, in front of the Odeon; and if not, I would advise them to enlighten their minds by referring to the Spanish law. They will then see that Royalty is always resplendent, although under the infant form.

THE MOTHER.

It appears by the following information given to the public by Dr Rowland of this city, that the much talked of Matchless Sanative is indeed what it professes to be—an efficient and valuable medicine, worthy the serious attention of every consumptive person.

MATCHLESS SANATIVE.

DAVID S. ROWLAND the General American Agent for this mighty medicine, (invented by the immortal Goelcke of Germany) has great pleasure in publishing the following highly important letter from a respectable gentleman in New York, which he has had the pleasure of communicating with many others of similar character, especially in Salem, as will be seen below—which, he adds, with the annexed certificate from three eminent German Physicians, that they have established the character of the Matchless Sanative, as being without a parallel in the history of medicine.

The unequalled reception with which it has met, speaks more than volumes in its favor. Already has its list of agents in America, in the short period of three months, swelled to the gaudy number of SEVEN HUNDRED AND TWENTY ONE, (mostly Postmasters,) who have voluntarily applied for agencies from different sections of the country, or else kindly forwarded responsible names as agents, in cases where it was inconvenient for them to do so themselves—and new applications are daily coming in from every quarter.

The General Agent has just received another importation of FIFTY THOUSAND PHIALS OF THE SANATIVE, yet he is apprehensive, that even this large quantity will be swept away by the flood of orders from abroad, before he shall receive another supply. Many of the gentlemen who write for agencies, having expressed a wish that the sale of the medicine might be given exclusively to one individual in every town, there will hereafter be but one agent appointed in each unsupplied town or city—viz, the Postmaster or some person recommended by the Postmaster. And as letters are constantly being received from invalids in these unsupplied places, for a single phial each, the Postmasters of such towns would both benefit themselves and greatly accommodate their neighbors by having their names immediately added to the list of agents.

In cases where it is not perfectly convenient to remit the small contingent bill, all orders will meet with the same prompt attention as if sum were forwarded; though it is very desirable that agents should comply with the terms of the prospectus as far as practicable, for the General Agent is responsible for any deviation from the established rules.

The General Agent at Boston, will gratefully thank any Postmaster who cannot conveniently act as an agent if he will have the goodness to forward him the name of some responsible Storekeeper, in order that so valuable a medicine as the Sanative prove itself to be, may have an agent in every town throughout the country.]

Testimony No. 1.

A letter from H. P. Sherwood, Esq., of New York.

Dr D. S. Rowland.—Sir, About the middle of July last, I accidentally noticed in a newspaper the advertisement of the Matchless Sanative, for which I perceived you were agent, and which professed to be a sovereign remedy for Consumption.

As my wife was then fast wasting away with this dreadful disease, and as our family physician was daily and anxiously endeavoring to restore her to health without success, I stepped over to her taking this new medicine. He replied, that "he was perfectly willing Mrs Sherwood should take that or any other medicine she might choose, but he thought it could do her no good, as her lungs were rapidly consuming and no human means could save her." So, as a drowning person will catch at a straw, and the Sanative being recommended by three physicians who had used it and purchased it, which she could not afford to give it a trial. I sent and purchased it, which she commenced taking this same day, giving a trial in reliance to her physician's testimony.

She suffered considerably for the first eight or ten days, but was shortly able to eat and drink freely,

INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS.—ANDERSON'S VEGETABLE ELIXIR, for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice and Bilious Complaints; weakness of the Stomach and Bowels, and consequent loss of appetite; nervous complaints, headache, sour stomach, &c. &c. and habitual costiveness.

This medicine is a compound entirely of vegetable substances, is perfectly safe in its operation, and may be given to children or persons of the most delicate habit, without the least risk of inconvenience.

The union in Jaundice, which has attended the use of it where it has been extensively used, in Boston and various other parts of the Unit of States, and in the West Indies, attested by distinguished persons, affords, next to a trial of the medicine itself, the best commentary upon its virtues, and the best recommendation which can be offered to those who are unacquainted with it.

Extract of a letter received from a gentleman in Boston, who suffered severely from indigestion for three years. During this time, I suffered very much from morning depression, constant pain in the head and breast, & sides, sharp-shooting pain over almost the whole system, so that I ate seemed to pass into my lungs and veins remain, giving me great pain as tended with a strong degree of heat. At times, I suffered so much from the effects of indigestion as to be confined to bed for two or three days. During one of these most severe attacks I was induced by the advice of a friend to try your Vegetable Medicine. In the course of a few weeks I found myself much better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered myself wholly free from the complaint. I continue on the least feeling of any thing like indigestion or pressure on the stomach, to take about a table spoonful of it, which, in the course of a few hours completely restores me. It has had with me a very wonderful effect, in strengthening the stomach and invigorating the whole system, and judging by my own case, I consider it in all diseases connected with the digestive organs to be a very valuable medicine.

It has been found singularly efficacious in cases of the most obstinate rheumatism.

It is put up in large bottles containing a pound and a half, and sold at seventy-five cents each, by Jonathan P. Hall, Jr.
